INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

I am 52 years of age; was born in the Old Cherokee Nation, East Tennessee-- Claiborne County. I claim Cherokee Indian blood through my father, Sterling J. Barnard. My father never received any Indian money from the government that I know of and I have never received any. My father came West to the Cherokee Nation in 1869. My father was not a Cherokee allottee and I have never gotten an allotment from the Dawes Commission. I first heard of my Indian blood as far back as I can remember. My father and mother told me of my Indian blood. The darkies owned by my father always called me Indian and it made me mad. I do not think my father ever lived with the Indians as a member of the tribe. I do not know if my father was a voter. I have always voted. My father did not speak the Cherokee language such. I never saw my father's parents. ~~They lived in Hancock County, Tenn.~~ My father's mother lived in Hancock County, Tenn.

WILL J. WATSON
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW
HAMILTON TRUST & SAVINGS BANK BUILDING

July 24, 1909.

Hon. Guion Miller,

Special Com'r Court of Claims, Washington.

Dear Sir:

Your letter to me of June 10th was a very sad disappointment to me. It has been my impression from my earliest childhood up that my ancestors, on my mother's side, were pure Indian blood. They were of the Eastern Cherokee stock. This I have been taught by my parents all my life, and just why it is that I am not allowed to participate in the division of the fund in favor of these people, is hard for me to understand. True, I am a poor man, had to get up my own evidence in support of my claim, and if there was lack of evidence, or if the evidence submitted was not presented in a manner or form that would entitle it to be heard as competent in my behalf, it is because I was unable to procure the necessary legal aid in getting up my written proof. The witnesses who testified for me, who gave their depositions, are residents of upper East Tennessee; and I being a resident of Tennessee many miles distant from them, it was impossible for me to do more than I did, in submitting my proof in legal form. My witnesses, like myself, are unlearned people, but they are honest and old, and no doubt, if they had a chance to present my claim as it should be, I would be entitled to participation in the fund set apart for my people.

My proof was made by witnesses who lived in Campbell County, where I was born, and where my parents resided till I was six or seven years old, when my parents moved to Kentucky, later to Ohio, etc. The records of Campbell County were destroyed by fire about the close of the Civil War, hence no record of my connection with the Eastern Cherokees, if there ever was any, could not now be supplied.

No.2.

WILL J. WATSON
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW
HAMILTON TRUST & SAVINGS BANK BUILDING
CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

Since the receipt of your letter of the 10th of June, I have found here in Chattanooga, rather in the suburbs of Chattanooga, at least one old person who was well acquainted with my mother and her family before I was born. As stated above, I am a poor man, unlearned in matters concerning my best interests in this behalf, and I am procuring this letter of explanation to be written to you in the hope that my claim may be re-opened and that I may be given another chance to establish my relationship to the Eastern Cherokees as it should be. My friends here advise me that they will assist me in procuring the necessary proof, to get it in legal form, etc., if given a chance to do so.

Sir:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, please state where, when, with what tribe and under what name your mother was ever enrolled. Was your mother a slave? Why have you never been enrolled with the Eastern Cherokees?

Can you furnish us with evidence tending to establish the fact that you are a descendant of persons who were recognized members of the Eastern Cherokee tribe of Indians at the date of the Treaty of 1835-36 and 1846? If so, please state what the evidence is, and send us the names and correct addresses of any witnesses who will testify to that effect.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

John F. Ivy, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 52 years of age and will be 53 in September. Live in Chattanooga. Claim through my mother only. My father was a full blood white man. I think my mother was born in Tenn. My grandfather Absalom Ivy was an Indian. He never had any other name than that of Ivy that I know of. ~~My mother's brothers and sisters~~ I never heard of my mother nor grandfather being on any rolls. I don't know where my grandfather was born. I don't know whether my mother or grandfather ever resided with any Indians but my grandfather always said he came from the Cherokee Indians. Other than the two affidavits herewith sub-joined and my testimony I am unable to give or furnish anything further in aid of my claim.

James A. Lowrey being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 53 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through my father; my mother was a white woman. My wife is part Indian. She has filed application #3785. My father claimed through his mother. Annie Ross was my grandmother. Charlie Lowrey was a white man. My father was born in 1804. Don't know where he was born. I believe it was in Virginia. He went to Tenn. from Va. Don't know when. Don't know whether my father ever lived with the Indians as a member of the tribe. My father was not on any roll that I know of. My father's brother, James Lowrey, was on the roll of 1835 or 1836. Suppose he was living in Tenn. at that time. He was a full brother of my father. I always heard that I was named after James Lowrey. A man, a lawyer, by the name of Watson at Claremore told me that ~~that this man was a lawyer by the name of Watson~~ James Lowrey was on the roll. I did not know of anything of it before he told me. He had a copy of the roll. His name may be Dotson, but I think it was Watson. Don't know why my father was not on the same roll. Never heard my father say how much Indian blood he had. Never heard of his receiving any land or money by reason of his Indian blood. I think my grandparents were living in 1835. I suppose that Ann Ross was going by the name of Lowrey at that time. William and Jim were brothers of my father. William died in Missouri and he is the only one I ever saw. Don't know whether he was ever on any roll or not. I did not make application to the Dawes Commission. This is the first application I ever made. I am recognized as a white man in the community and my father was recognized in the same way. Sallie Lowrey was a sister of my father. Don't know who Sally married.

His family and my Father's family were intimately acquainted and when he left Tennessee and came to Missouri, there were about six families came together, including my father's and Alexander Brown's family. Also, I have heard them say many times that said Alexander Brown was enrolled as a Cherokee Indian on the Roll of 1835. He was a tall man, dark complexion with black hair and eyes. He has always been talked about and known as a half blood Cherokee. He died in 1838. I was at his funeral-the first person I ever saw buried. Misc.

Richard Reese, ---- being duly sworn, deposes
and says:

My name is Richard Reese. My age is 34 years.

I was born and raised in Going Snake District. Annie Reese is my wife. I filed an application. My wife is about 30 years old. She was born and raised in Going Snake District. She got the bread and strip payment. She was also enrolled by the Dawes Commission, Cherokee Roll No. . I do not have the number with me. She was enrolled as a full-blood Cherokee. Her parents were both Cherokees. They are both dead. He has been dead about 20 years. He must have been about 35 at his death. I don't know where he was born but it was in the Territory. His name was Dave Cummings. I don't know whether he was enrolled in 1851. Bird Cumming was Dave Cumming's brother. I don't know whether he was older than Dave. I don't know any sisters. I don't know his mother's name. I don't know his father's name. I don't know whether his parents were old settlers or not. My wife's mother's name was Betsey Cummings, and Peach eater before marriage. She had a brother Jack Cummings. Betsey Peach eater lived in Going Snake District. She had no other brothers and sisters. If she were living now she would be about 50. I don't know just how long she has been dead, but my wife was a small child when she died. I don't think that Betsey Peach eater was old enough to be on the 1851 Roll. I don't think she had any brothers and sisters. Her father's name was Steve or Stephen Peach eater. He was enrolled sometimes as Smith. He lived in Going Snake District. I don't know any brothers of Steve Peach eater. I am not sure but it seems to me it was Susannah or Susan. Ti-yan-ni Peach eater was Stephen's sister. She lived in Going Snake District. Steve had another sister named Annie. He had another brother called Chriss. Ti-ya-nih is living in Going Snake District. It is Annie that is dead. I never saw Betsey Peach eater, but I knew Stephen. Stephen was 68 when he died, and has not been dead as long as my wife's father. (538 G. S.) They are not Old Settlers. They never joined any other tribe of Indians.

My deceased wife was a full sister of James M. Zachary, # 592, and a half ~~sister~~ sister to John Zachary, both of whom have applied to participate in this fund. I have heard my wife say that she had heard her father say that he was 1/2 Indian. We are regarded as mixed blood white people in the community in which we live.

Dear Sir:-

Some time last summer I filed the application of Margaret

Appl. #3847

December 20, 1907.

Lou Mabe,
Pearless, Texas.

Madam:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, we beg to inform you that the names of your parents and grandparents, as given in your application do not appear on the rolls of 1835 or 1851. Were either of your grandparents on either side slaves? If so, were they slaves of Indians or white people? Why have you never been enrolled with the Eastern Cherokees? Were your parents or grandparents members of any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokees? Did your grandparents always live in Hawkins County, Tenn.? Were they living there in 1835?

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.
